

UIC JOHN MARSHALL LAW SCHOOL

Graduation

Note: This policy will be revised or superseded as part of the Law School's integration into the University of Illinois at Chicago. These changes will go into effect beginning Fall 2020.

Graduation

Graduating students must submit an Application for Graduation on the commencement page of UIC John Marshall Law School's website. It is imperative for graduating students to notify the Registrar if they have changed their schedules and reduced their hours after they have submitted the Application for Graduation.

Each student has the responsibility to make sure that all degree requirements are fulfilled. Anticipated graduates should make an independent review of their records before registering for their final semester. It is the student's responsibility, not the Registrar's, to make sure that all degree requirements will be fulfilled by the end of the final semester.

Graduation Honors

Summa cum laude: JD graduates in the top 1 percent of their class level will earn this honor.

Magna cum laude: JD graduates in the top 4 percent of their class level will earn this honor.

Cum laude: JD graduates in the top 15 percent of their class level will earn this honor.

Order of UIC John Marshall Law School: JD graduates in the top 15 percent of their class level will earn this honor.
