

Paying Back Your Student Loans and Programs for Academic Bar Success

The John Marshall Law School has teamed up with AccessLex to provide students with resources to assist with their student loan repayments. AccessLex is a nonprofit organization and they are linked to nearly 200 American Bar Association –approved nonprofit and state affiliated law schools.

AccessLex evolves to meet the ever- changing challenges and needs of law students. This organization is committed to understanding the barriers that students face during and after law school.

Please subscribe to stay informed. Check out their website and important links below.

<https://www.accesslex.org/accesslex-center-legal-education-excellence>

As a MAX school, students have access to the online MAX platform, which includes lessons, podcasts, webinars, worksheets, opportunities for personal finance coaching, and much more.

Here are several resources for you to be proactive :

<https://www.accesslex.org/programs-for-academic-and-bar-success>

Programs for Academic and Bar Success

<https://www.accesslex.org/calculator>

Loan borrowers can upload all their Federal loan information from the NSLDS directly into the calculator and see eligible plans and estimated repayment amounts

<https://www.accesslex.org/road-to-zero-video-presentation>

Recorded version of our on-campus workshop, The Road to Zero: A Strategic Approach to Student Loan Repayment

<https://www.accesslex.org/accessconnex>

Student loan helpline (phone, email, chat)